

Who the Dickens?

'A Christmas Carol' was first written by Charles Dickens. Our zoo story about Scrooge the owl is modern, but the original Victorian setting is great for Christmas stories. Dickens' stories are full of interesting characters: orphans, rich folk and even ghosts! Hear our zoo version of the story (<https://youtu.be/keDf672hhr8>) and then design a new character for it! Pick an animal and give them Victorian clothes (use the pictures to help you). Then give them a name and a backstory!

My character

My character is called _____

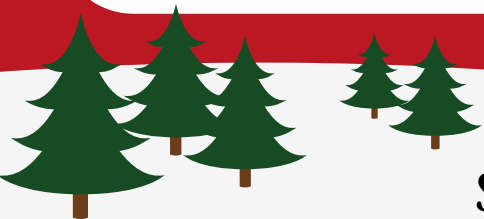

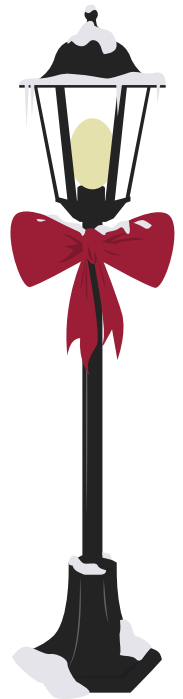

Send us your character - we would love to see them!

Who the Dickens?

Imagine your character in a Victorian version of A Christmas Carol. Who is your character? How do they know Scrooge? Are they a relative, do they work for him or do they live nearby? Do they like him or not? Are they from the present, past or future? Did they want him to change? Did they meet any ghosts themselves?

Write your character's part of the story below!

Send us your stories - we would love to see them!

